

KOOTZNOOWOO, INC. ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF STONE LION ENVIRONMENTAL, LLC

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 20, 2025

(Juneau, Alaska)— Kootznoowoo, Inc. is pleased to announce that it has acquired Stone Lion Environmental, LLC, a highly specialized environmental science and restoration company based in Albuquerque, New Mexico. This acquisition supports Kootznoowoo’s long-term goals of making investments that drive sustainable growth, diversification, and increased opportunities.

Stone Lion Environmental brings more than 21 years of experience supporting Department of Energy and Sandia National Laboratories. The company provides an extensive range of services, including environmental restoration, hazardous and radioactive waste management, material sanitization, environmental safety, and project management. Stone Lion has a strong reputation and is recognized for completing highly complex projects safely, on time, and under budget.

“Stone Lion Environmental is a proven leader with an exceptional track record in one of the most specialized service sectors in the country,” said J. Keith Greene, CEO of Kootznoowoo, Inc. “This acquisition strengthens our corporate portfolio and aligns with our mission to build strong, profitable businesses that can increase opportunities and shareholder benefits.”

The acquisition brings a competitive advantage to Kootznoowoo, positioning the corporation within a niche market with high demand for certified, experienced environmental service providers. Stone Lion’s strong reputation and operational excellence create a solid foundation for contract stability and future expansion.

“This acquisition reflects Kootznoowoo’s strategic and mission-driven approach to growing our businesses,” said Frank Jack III, Chairman of the Kootznoowoo Board of Directors. “Stone Lion’s expertise strengthens our corporate family and enhances our ability to pursue new opportunities that create long-term, sustainable value for our shareholders.”
